PRESS CLIPPINGS.

The inventor of that bullet-proof cloth ought to do a big business in Klondike next spring, when the fun really begins.—Chicago Times-Herald.

After all, scratch the Jap and you find only a Malay, in spite of all his progress during the last few years.—New York Sun.

It remains to be seen whether Andree's balloon project is a polar investment from which there is going to be any return.—Philadelphia Times.

England ought to take pity on Japan and explain to her what kind of fighters the Americans are. England knows.—Kansas City Journal.

The inexorable laws of chance have no effect on senatorial sugar speculators. When a senator invests in stock it always goes up.—Cleveland Plain-Dealer.

Whiskey is reported as selling in Klondike at $104 per gallon. It would keep a good many fellows sober in other places at that price.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

It is somewhat consoling to remember that some of the people who are leaving their country for the Klondike are also leaving for their country's good.—Cleveland Plain-Dealer.

McKinley's habit of appointing his cousins and nephews and uncles to office is so far the only Napoleonic quality he has developed in the presidential chair.—Atlanta Journal.

A curious circumstance about prosperity coming back is that the more factory chimneys smoke the brighter will grow the skies.—Philadelphia Times.

If Mr. McKinley is going to reward his negro supporters in the south with office, giving them consulships in distant parts of the world is the least objectionable method to that end.—Nashville American.

White men who join the republican party in the south may expect to play second fiddle to Cuffee. This is the situation in Georgia. The lily whites may as well "black up" if they are going to take part in the performance.—Atlanta Constitution.

An Ohio man is complaining because his wheat crop was so big that he worked one of his horses to death getting it in. The same man would rebel on passing the pearly gates because the streets beyond were not paved with silver.—Richmond Times.

The revenue order directing agents to seize tobacco and cigarettes containing articles, gifts or rewards of premiums has been amended. The government is now doubtful as to its power to legally seize such goods. There is a very general and well founded impression that congress has transcended its authority in undertaking to and enforce such regulations. The matter is to be thoroughly tested, and in the meanwhile the goods will be seized.—Danville Register.

JOHNSON'S CHILL AND FEVER TONIC

Cures Fever In One Day.

Here is a story told by a traveler: I was driving across the country to a little town in Western Kansas the other day when I met a farmer hauling a wagon-load of water. "Where do you get water?" said I. "Up the road about seven miles," replied he. "And you haul water seven miles for your family and stock?" "Yep." "Why in the name of sense don't you dig a well?" "Because it's just as far one way as the other, stranger."—Kansas City Journal.

In 1862, when I served my country as a private in Company A, 167th Pennsylvania Volunteers, I contracted chronic diarrhoea. It has given me a great deal of trouble ever since. I have tried a dozen different medicines and several doctors without any permanent relief. Not long ago a friend sent me a sample bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after that I bought and took a 50-cent bottle; and now I can say that I am entirely cured. I cannot be thankful enough to you for this great remedy, and recommend it to all suffering veterans. If in doubt write me. Yours gratefully, Henry Steinberger, Allentown, Pa. Sold by Dr. W. L. Wallace, Druggist.

Great floods have done immense damage in Austria and many lives have been lost.

Quinine and other fever medicines take from 5 to 10 days to cure fever. Johnson's Chill and Fever Tonic cures in ONE DAY.

A negro girl 13 years old is under arrest in Charleston for burglary.

No Cure, No Pay. That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill, Tonic for Chills and malaria. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating Tonics. Price, 50c.

Tennessee towns are enforcing a strict quarantine against Birmingham, Ala. on account of the smallpox epidemic in that place.

Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away. To quit tobacco easily and forever, be magnetic, full of life, nerve and vigor, take No-To-Bac, the wonder-worker, that makes weak men strong. All druggists, 50c or $1. Cure guaranteed. Booklet and sample free. Address: Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

A 6-year-old was seated in a barber's chair. "Well, my little man, how would you like your hair cut?" "Oh, like papa's, with a little round hole at the top."

"Let me give you a pointer," said M. F. Gregg, a popular conductor on the Missouri Pacific railroad. "Do you know that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy cures you when you have the stomach ache? Well, it does." And after giving this friendly bit of advice, the jolly conductor passed on down the aisle. It is a fact that thousands of railroad and traveling men never take a trip without a bottle of this remedy, which is the best cure for bowel disorders in the world. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. W. L. Wallace druggist.

"A subscriber who has not paid for his paper in six years," says a Missouri exchange, "writes to us to know how we stand on the financial question. We telegraphed the sheriff to arrest him and hold him until we got our shot gun repaired. We can stand some things, but such brazen effrontery as this is unbearable."

Quinine and other fever medicines take from 5 to 10 days to cure fever. Johnson's Chill and Fever Tonic cures in ONE DAY.

It is always gratifying to receive testimonials for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and when the endorsement is from a physician it is especially so. "There is no more satisfactory or effective remedy than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy," writes Dr. R. E. Robey, physician and pharmacist, of Olney, Mo.; and as he has used the Remedy in his own family and sold it in his drug store for six years, he should certainly know. For sale by Dr. W. L. Wallace, druggist.

A lady died and while pallbearers were conveying her to her last resting place, by some mishap they stumbled and dropped the corpse. The concussion brought the deceased to life and she lived six or seven years and died again. On the way to the grave they passed over the same ground, and when the pallbearers reached the identical spot where the stumble had been made at the previous sad service, the agitated husband stepped in front of those bearing the remains of his lamented wife and said: "Steady, boys, steady."

An Omaha girl appears to have a devilish poor opinion of the sterner sex. Upon being asked why she did not marry, she replied: "I have considerable money of my own. I have a parrot that swears, a monkey that chews and a chimney that smokes, so you see I am not in need of a husband very badly."

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy always affords prompt relief. For sale by Dr. W. L. Wallace druggist.

My wife is a most original woman," said Brown. "Why, when I proposed to her, instead of saying, 'This is so sudden,' she said, 'Well, I think it's about time.'"

A pretty girl of sweet sixteen in Pennsylvania reached for a flower and a snake on the bough bit her arm. She fainted and a young man found her, threw water in her face and was hysterically told she had been bitten by a rattlesnake. He drew away the poison with his lips, and now there is the foundation for a thrilling romance. But after they are married some crusty old fellow will tell her that a rattlesnake cannot climb a bush, and then she will know that the 'blacksnake' is harmless. Will there be a divorce? But John has not told Bertha yet.—Florida Citizen.

to which the Expectant Mother is exposed and the foreboding and dread with which she looks forward to the hour of woman's severest trial is appreciated by but few. All effort should be made to smooth these rugged places in life's pathway for her, ere she presses to her bosom her babe.

"I know one lady, the mother of three children, who suffered greatly in the birth of each, who obtained a bottle of 'Mother's Friend' of me before her fourth confinement, and was relieved quickly and easily. All agree that their labor was shorter and less painful." JOHN G. POLBELL, Macon, Ga.
